JAMES C. KIRKPATRICK
STATE INFORMATION CENTER
(573) 751-4936

Dear Fellow Missourians,

I am honored to once again provide this roster of Missouri's state and federal officeholders. This guide is a concise collection of the information you'll need to identify and contact state and federal legislators, along with information on legislative committees and state agencies.

My staff and I are committed to making state government more transparent and accessible for all Missourians. This roster will provide you with the information necessary to contact your elected leaders and state agencies directly with questions, concerns and ideas.

As part of my continuing effort to increase access to government, I created www.TheMissouriChannel.com just after taking office. The site hosts recordings of legislative debate in the Missouri General Assembly and provides an important opportunity for Missourians to listen to our legislature debate key issues. Whether you want to conduct research on a particular bill or simply learn more about how your government operates, I encourage you to visit the site.

There are now more ways than ever to keep tabs on your government. No matter if you prefer online tools like The Missouri Channel or handy print resources like this roster, it's important to keep your leaders accountable and make your voices heard.

Sincerely,

Jason Kander
Secretary of State
